THE ITIJ AWARDS

About

The ITIJ Awards are held each year to conclude ITIC Global, bringing together executives and operations teams from around the world to recognise the hard work and achievements of travel insurers and the support networks that deliver their services. The categories are designed to recognise the importance of the different functions played by companies within the chain of travel and health insurance, from policy-making and distribution, to medical assistance, cost containment, insurtech and marketing.

Why enter?

For 25 years the ITIJ Awards have been known around the world as a mark of quality in the travel and international health insurance sector. By becoming an ITIJ Awards finalist or winner, you are ensuring your company’s critical acclaim, as well as positioning your brand as a prime example of how to navigate the new travel landscape. With the potential for global brand exposure, the ITIJ Awards offer companies the opportunity to cement their reputation as credible and quality players in the delivery of international travel insurance and medical assistance support services.

How to enter

Choose your category

Head to itij.com/awards/categories. There you will find the specific eligibility criteria and questions you need to answer in order to enter your chosen category.

Create a bio

Upload your logo and company bio. Click Submit.

Fill out the required information

You have to answer three questions that give the judges insights into your achievements over the past 12 months, allowing them to see investment in your company, how you overcame challenges and obstacles, and how you are pushing progress in the wider industry by enhancing the quality of services your company offers. The submission should not exceed 250 words per question – 750 words in total.

FAQs

How is my entry judged?

The ITIJ Awards are judged by an impartial panel of experts from across the globe – industry veterans who know the ins and outs of the travel insurance provision. We welcome you to view our prestigious judging line-up here: awards.itij.com/judges.

All entries are scored based on the statement answers submitted.

Can I nominate another company for an award?

Yes, of course! If you wish to nominate a company for an ITIJ Award, simply email awards@itij.com and provide a short explanation of why you feel the company deserves recognition in a particular category. We will then contact the nominated company and invite them to participate.
